Victorian Energy Upgrades

'I love the outdoors and I love food. Having my camping kitchen in my backpack when hiking lets me enjoy both at the same time. You know that even if you get lost, you'll still have a hot cup of soup!

'I work in the team overseeing the Victorian Energy Efficiency Target (VEET) scheme, which aims to help reduce greenhouse gases by making energy efficiency improvements more affordable for consumers. I recently worked on a project that aims to improve safety for people working under the scheme. As part of this work, we reviewed our mandatory safety training requirements.'
