

Submission to electricity transmission company land access Statement of Expectations

Submission received through Engage Victoria

From 24 March to 19 April 2022, the commission accepted submissions on our draft Statement of Expectations for electricity transmission company land access via Engage Victoria. On the 4 April 2022 we hosted a public webinar on the project, followed by a meeting with industry representatives on 5 April 2022. We have used these submissions to inform our final decision.

Date submitted: 19 April 2022

Name: [REDACTED]

Stakeholder/interest group: Land holder

Q5. What has worked well in relation to prior instances of land access?

No land access was needed so far

Q6. What key challenges have you faced under current land access arrangements?

Ausnet were very slow in contacting me. My neighbours received information but I did not

Q7. What information do you consider you need prior to land access to feel comfortable with an exercise of a right to access land?

Time, date, the reason why, being told what will be done. The number of people & number of vehicles frequency

Q8. Do you think the principles of the draft Statement of Expectations on land access address issues of concern to you?

No

Q9. What information do you think we should collect about a transmission companies' performance in relation to land access and frequency?

Who enters my land. The reasons why

Q10. Is there anything else you want us to consider when finalising this Statement of Expectations?

No response provided

Q11. Submission documentation provided

Q12. I agree to the collection notice on this page.

Yes

Q13. I'd like my name or other identifying information withheld when published.

Yes

Q14. I'd like my submission to be treated as confidential.

No