What are your views on CEP Energy Retail Pty Ltd's licence application?

I wasn't clear on if the applicant will ensure their future customers are provided with and encouraged to choose low environmental impact power options, i.e. accredited renewable energy products or certified carbon offset schemes.

With floods and fire ravaging the Victorian landscape, the environmental impact of electricity usage is of primary interest to all Victorian residents and businesses.

Victoria needs Energy Providers that actively support our Governments push to reduce our environmental impact, not more of the same types of companies that simply exist for profit without any positive environment commitment. Environmental considerations are barely mentioned in the accompanying documents, so at this time I cannot support this application.
