

Submission to electricity transmission company land access Statement of Expectations

Submission received through Engage Victoria

From 24 March to 19 April 2022, the commission accepted submissions on our draft Statement of Expectations for electricity transmission company land access via Engage Victoria. On the 4 April 2022 we hosted a public webinar on the project, followed by a meeting with industry representatives on 5 April 2022. We have used these submissions to inform our final decision.

Date submitted: 13 April 2022

Name: Joe Mugliett

Stakeholder/interest group: Affected land owner

Q5. What has worked well in relation to prior instances of land access?

To be completely honest, nothing.

Q6. What key challenges have you faced under current land access arrangements?

Constant lies and bullying. stand over tactics.

Q7. What information do you consider you need prior to land access to feel comfortable with an exercise of a right to access land?

Details of representatives attending. What they plan to do onsite.

Q8. Do you think the principles of the draft Statement of Expectations on land access address issues of concern to you?

Talk is cheap, it will not be adhered to

Q9. What information do you think we should collect about a transmission companies' performance in relation to land access and frequency?

No answer provided

Q10. Is there anything else you want us to consider when finalising this Statement of Expectations?

I think what you are doing is wrong and bringing unnecessary stress. My neighbours and my self are on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

Q11. Submission documentation provided

Q12. I agree to the collection notice on this page.

Yes

Q13. I'd like my name or other identifying information withheld when published.

No

Q14. I'd like my submission to be treated as confidential.

No