Do you have any comments on the commission's consultation paper?

Electricity costs have risen because the coronavirus pandemic has required people to work from home, and stay home as much as possible during the isolation period.

I checked with my electricity supplier to see if there was a cheaper option but they automatically referred me to the Victorian Default Offer which in one sense was reassuring but did not give me any cheaper option.

If you are sure that the VDO meets the needs of Victorians and does not let the electricity suppliers rip them off, I can support the VDO.
