

Minimum feed-in tariff 2023-24

Submission received through Engage Victoria

Date submitted: 21/12/2022

Submission written by: Tom Gojrzewski

From December 2022, we began accepting submissions on our Minimum feed-in tariff review 2023-24 via Engage Victoria (www.engage.vic.gov.au). On this website, people were given the opportunity to send us a response to a set of questions we provided.

What parts of our proposed methodology for setting the minimum single and time-varying feed-in tariff rates do you consider are appropriate?

There should a be minimum set. An intervention is required to protect the consumers.

What parts of our proposed methodology should we change?

The actual amount as set in the document is still very low.

For our overall methodology, or parts of it, what alternative methodologies should we consider?

We should consider the investment return. If the solar does not reduce the electricity bills then what is the point of the investment in solar,